Bio

C.J. Persson primarily works in our Business Planning & Transactions and Tax & Wealth Planning departments. Having a deep, practical understanding of the complexities of business operations and management, tax, brand protection, and succession planning, C.J. helps clients navigate the legal landscape to make strategic, informed, and tax-efficient decisions. She provides counsel to owners and businesses at every stage, particularly those in the technology, healthcare, manufacturing and distribution, and quick-service restaurant industries.

With a background in business management, in-house legal and supply chain experience at a global wholesaler and retailer, and advanced tax law education, many seek C.J. as their general counsel, compliance officer, or contract attorney. Whether guiding clients through multimillion-dollar acquisitions, product development, commercial leases, RFPs and government contracts, future ownership, or tax controversies, C.J. delivers pragmatic, informed advice focused on clients' goals. Known for her detail orientation, forward thinking, and down-to-earth counsel, C.J. quickly becomes her clients' trusted go-to for all legal needs and is receptive and ready to meet any challenge.

Licensed in Maryland, C.J. also holds a LL.M. in Taxation and a CIPP/US certification, underscoring her holistic approach to legal counsel and her commitment to data privacy and regulatory compliance.
