

LOUIS J. EBERT

Title: Pro-Bono Chair

Phone: 410.649.4995

Email: lebert@rosenbergmartin.com

Bar Admissions

- Maryland
- Virginia
- District of Columbia
- Delaware
- U.S. Court of Claims
- U.S. Supreme Court
- U.S. Court of Appeals, Fourth Circuit

Education

- George Washington University National Law Center, J.D. (Order of the Coif)(1976)
- State University of New York at Buffalo, B.A. (magna cum laude)(1973)

Bio

Louis J. Ebert is the Pro-Bono Chair of Rosenberg Martin Greenberg. Lou will provide Baltimore area residents, who cannot afford legal services, access to a seasoned professional, with the additional resources of attorneys at RMG. He plans to focus on several public interest matters involving landlord-tenant matters, wage and hour matters, discrimination cases and credit card debt matters.

In his previous role as co-chair of the Creditors' Rights Department, Lou represented secured creditors, including some of the largest banks and other commercial lenders in the country, in bankruptcy, commercial litigation, foreclosure and workout matters. In bankruptcy cases, he regularly represented lenders in cash collateral proceedings, relief from the automatic stay proceedings, discharge litigation, 363 sales and confirmation of reorganization plan issues. He has represented financial services institutions in bankruptcy cases in Maryland, Virginia, the District of Columbia, Delaware, Illinois, Florida, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts.

Lou also represented lenders in commercial loan restructures, commercial litigation, foreclosure proceedings and secured creditor sales. He has represented financial services institutions in a substantial number of lender liability and fraudulent conveyance actions. In one of these cases, which he successfully argued on appeal before the Supreme Court of Virginia, his efforts resulted in the establishment of very favorable foreclosure law to lenders in the Commonwealth of Virginia. In a successful appeal before the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, he helped to establish very favorable law for debt collectors governed by the Fair Debt Collections

Practices Act. Lou has lectured and given numerous seminars on bankruptcy, workouts, consumer laws and related issues for various organizations including MICPEL and the National Business Institute. He is also a member of the Bankruptcy Bar Association for the District of Maryland, Inc.

Lou graduated magna cum laude and received his B.A. from the State University of New York at Buffalo and received his J.D. from George Washington University National Law Center, Order of the Coif, in 1976. He is admitted to practice in the state and bankruptcy courts in Maryland, Virginia, the District of Columbia and Delaware. From 2011 through 2020, he was selected as one of The Best Lawyers in America in the bankruptcy field in the State of Maryland. Currently, he is serving on the Advisory Board of the 8th Annual Mid-Atlantic Bankruptcy Workshop.